

ZENATO[®]

Publication: My Trip

Place: France Web

Date: 21 April 2024

The 10 best wineries in Italy to visit and taste wine during your vacation!

Italy is one of the most powerful and important European countries on the Mediterranean coast. Some of the country's major landmarks are the Leaning Tower of Pisa, the Colosseum, and the country's ancient Gothic cathedrals. And the must-see cities are Rome, Florence, Naples, Tuscany and the Amalfi Coast. Like any other Western country, Italy is well known for its traditional viticulture and trade. It is also famous for growing hundreds of grape varieties, vineyard clones and natural perfume serums for wines. Get to know the 10 best wineries in Italy to explore and discover the wine paradise!

The 10 Best Wineries in Italy to Explore

1. Masseto wine estate
2. Montefioralle wine estate
3. Mastroberardino
4. Cellar San Filippo
5. Domaine Tenelli Lunelli
6. Winery Marchesi Antinori
7. Zenato wine estate
8. Canalicchio by Sopra
9. The Fessina estate
10. Verrazzano Castle

7. Zenato Cellar

Zenato wine is a very famous wine from the Veneto region in northeastern Italy. This place only produces top quality wines in the traditional way. You can also see huge, massive wooden barrels, ancient wine cellars, and a picturesque landscape of golden corn, tobacco, and oak plantations. And the interesting thing is that you can also look forward to this amazing winery in India! Now let it cool! Additionally, you can bring many bottles of wine and spices as souvenirs from Italy. Visit this famous place on your Italy wine tour!

Also Read: Best 9 Day Itinerary for Your Italy Vacation